

How to access "lynda.com"

The screenshot shows the My UW-Madison website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the University of Wisconsin-Madison logo and the text "My UW-Madison". Below this, there is a search bar and a welcome message for KATHLEEN A MCCAIN. The main navigation menu includes tabs for WELCOME, ACADEMICS, SERVICES, WORK RECORD, NEWS, and RESEARCH. The SERVICES tab is highlighted with a red circle, and a black arrow points to a dropdown menu that is open. This dropdown menu lists various services, with "lynda.com@UW-Madison" highlighted in a yellow box. Other services listed include WiscMail, My WebSpace, My DoIT Help Desk Cases, WiscChat, Lost and Found, WiscCal, WiscCal - Make an Appointment, Purchasing Resources, Employee Financial Resources, Computing and Software, Marketplace, DoIT Departmental Consolidated Billing Invoice, WiscAlerts, Campus Chat Connections, and Requisition and Number Generator. The background of the website shows a "Payroll Information" section with a table of earnings statements and a "Campus News" section with several news items.
