

Resident Competency Evaluation_Pap Smear Rev 7/2015

Instructions:

Number of competent pap smear evaluations needed to fulfill graduation requirement: 10

Subject Name: _____

Evaluator Name: _____

1* Date of Procedure _____

Evaluator Signature: _____

2* Patient Medical Record # _____

3* Overall observation of pap smear procedure

- Competent
 Not Competent

4 Pap indications are appropriate

- Yes
 No

6 Resident makes the patient feel comfortable

- Yes
 No

8 Resident summarizes findings at the end of the procedure

- Yes
 No

10 Patient is appropriately positioned and draped

- Yes
 No

12 Resident chooses the correct speculum size for the patient

- Yes
 No

14 Resident inserts the speculum slowly and gently

- Yes
 No

16 Resident identifies cervical landmarks (transformation zone & SCJ)

- No

18 Resident obtains ectocervical and endocervical cells from the correct areas of the cervix

- Yes
 No

19 Specimen is appropriately preserved and readied for transport

- Yes
 No

20 Resident visually examines the vaginal mucosa as the speculum is removed

- Yes
 No

21 Resident performs a bimanual exam after completion of the pap smear

- Yes
 No

22 Resident covers the patient back up at the conclusion of the exam and allows the patient to dress privately

- Yes
 No

5 Resident appropriately explains pap smear purpose to the patient

- Yes
 No

7 Resident explains what he/she is doing as the procedure progresses

- Yes
 No

9 Resident tells the patient how and when she will receive her results

- Yes
 No

11 Resident performs an external visual inspection of the perineum

- Yes
 No

13 Speculum is appropriately lubricated

- Yes
 No

15 Resident isolates the cervix

- Yes
 No

17 Resident assesses for abnormal vaginal/cervical discharge

- Yes
 No