

An invitation to all members of the statewide DFMCH community including faculty; clinical learners; clinical, educational, research and administrative staff to begin the conversation.

It starts with me:
Conversations about
Identity,
Privilege and Intersectionality

Bay Creek Conference Room—Wingra Clinic

July 7, 2016, 12: 30-1: 30: Foundations: Introductions, definitions, history

September 1, 2016 12: 30-1: 30: Identity, power and oppression

November 2, 2016 12: 30-1: 30: Implicit bias and microaggressions

January 5, 2017 12: 30-1: 30: Communicating about race

March 2, 2017 12: 30-1: 30: Panel with People of Color

May 4, 2017 12: 30-1: 30: Movement and Action

Videoconference is available for all sessions—Arrange at least 1 week in advance

You may attend any or all of the sessions, but it is suggested that you attend as many as possible. Please bring lunch and a willingness to have an open discussion with other department members.

Contact Ann Schensky 265-8076 or ann.schensky@fammed.wisc.edu with questions and to sign up for the session(s).

Brought to you by the:
DFMCH Diversity,
Equity and Inclusion
Committee

